Day 1

📍 1 Sentosa Island

Morning: Fun under the sun

Escape the urban jungle and make your way to Sentosa, Singapore's exhilarating island resort.

There's much to do here—you could take the young ones to Adventure Cove WaterPark™ for thrilling slides and encounters with marine life, or, if they're a little older, to visit the Skyline Luge (part go-cart, part-toboggan action ride) or iFly Singapore to try indoor skydiving along the coast of Sentosa. Visitors are strongly encouraged to

📍 2 Gardens by the Bay

Afternoon: Get in touch with nature

After spending a morning at the beach, opt for a change of scenery and take a stroll around Gardens by the Bay. This magnificent nature park is unlike anything you've ever seen before, featuring futuristic-looking Supertrees that tower over the gardens. Walk through cooled conservatories and glass greenhouses that are home to a stunning myriad of flora, some of which are extremely rare.

Then, pop by Supertree Dining for a midday meal. This multi-concept dining spot houses several eateries, including the halal-certified Texas Chicken, Hill Street Coffee Shop (try toast with kaya, a traditional jam made from coconut and eggs), and Oriental Western and Bistro, a modern family-friendly restaurant that offers fusion food.

📍 3 Marina Bay

Evening: Wander around the bay area

Ready for dinner? The gorgeous Marina Bay Sands® is chock-full of celebrity chef restaurants if your family is interested in sampling some fine plates. Otherwise, go for a delicious spread of delights at RISE, a buffet restaurant featuring international creations that everyone will enjoy.

Then pop by the nearby Merlion Park across Marina Bay Sands® to snap shots of the Singapore icon—a 8.6-metre-tall half-fish, half-lion statue—and take in lovely views of the city.

Day 2

📍4 Singapore Flyer

Morning: Take the wheel

Treat yourself and the family to a visual feast first thing in the morning by going aboard the Singapore Flyer. The giant ferris wheel takes you 165 metres above ground and offers amazing 360-degree city views. On a clear day, you can even see certain parts of Malaysia and Indonesia!

Afternoon: Tuck into some midday treats

After visiting the Singapore Flyer, spend the afternoon indulging in tasty Modern European creations (with a touch of Asian influence) at PS.Cafe. The Dempsey outlet has an outdoor lawn and a garden for the kids to run around in, while the adults can enjoy dishes like a satisfying steak sandwich and a Tiger Beer-battered fish and chips.

Don't forget dessert. The whole family's bound to love signature sweets like PS.Cafe's luscious sticky date pudding—a must-try when you're there.

📍6 Orchard Road

Evening: Shopping in town

Come post-lunch, the clan can wander around the world-famous Orchard Road. At malls like Paragon and Forum, adults can shop at stores like Banana Republic and Calvin Klein Platinum, while kids have endless hours of fun at the available play areas.

With its smorgasbord of dining options, there's really no need to go anywhere else for dinner so stick around Orchard Road. Swensen's (ION Orchard), OverEasy (Liat Towers), Tony Roma's (Orchard Central) and Chinese restaurant Din Tai Fung (Paragon) are all great family restaurants that serve up creations everyone will love, from fried chicken and mouth-watering burgers to juicy ribs and delicious soup dumplings.

After dinner, take a little walk down Orchard Road and grab dessert by stopping by the ice cream carts for a sweet, cold ice cream sandwich.

Day 3

📍7 Bird Paradise

Nature lovers and other birds of a feather can flock together and indulge in their passion for the unique avian world at Bird Paradise.

With the closure of Jurong Bird Park, a fresh start awaits Bird Paradise when it opens its door to the public in 2023. The brand new bird park is located at Mandai Wildlife Reserve, an integrated wildlife destination which is also home to Singapore Zoo, Night Safari and River Wonders.

Highlights include eight walks through aviaries that reflect habitats from across the world, such as dense African rainforests, South American wetlands, Southeast Asian paddy fields, Australian dry eucalypt forests, and more.

📍8 Night Safari

Evening: Hang out at a different kind of night spot

For your final stop, hop on over to the Night Safari. Located right next door to the Singapore Zoo, this park welcomes guests to experience the world's first nocturnal safari experience with almost 900 animals, of which 41% are threatened.

Begin your night with a sumptuous Asian Buffet dinner at Ulu Ulu Safari Restaurant before catching a ride onboard the Guided Tram Ride to see nocturnal animals found in six of the world's geographical regions. Trek along the four walking trails to soak in the sights and sounds of the night for a complete night adventure.

Head to the new Explorer Outpost at Fishing Cat Trail to meet the newest creature of the night – the Southern Three-banded Armadillo, and don't forget to catch the exhilarating Creatures of the Night Show before you leave.
